Gentlemen: Attention: Mr. Crawford Wheeler

I have just looked over a typewritten list of United States and foreign coins bearing the name Mr. Glenn Wyatt that your Mr. V. L. Brown has just handed me. It is very hard to state to a fraction of a cent what the coins are worth without seeing them but as none are rare and only two have a premium I think they can be evaluated within a few cents.

The two half cent pieces are worth probably five cents each; the 20 mark piece I am not valuing as I do not know from the description what the piece is. With this one exception and including the two one-half cent pieces I would say all of the coins are worth $1.73.

Very truly yours,
